WEBSITE QUOTATION

Quotation No.	TB/AH/2026/003-R2	Date	15 September 2026
Client	Trupti Ketan Deore	Project	Arula Herbals Website
Developer	TECH BUDDIES	Validity	15 Days

This document supersedes and revises the earlier quotation of the same project scope. Changes in this revision: final project cost, updated payment split (30% advance / 70% final) and updated additional-product rate.

1. Project Overview

Development of a premium, custom and responsive showcase website for Arula Herbals. The website will present the brand story, herbal products, product benefits, quality/certification information, usage guidance and direct customer purchase options through WhatsApp, Amazon and Flipkart. Built-in e-commerce checkout and payment gateway are not included.

2. Scope of Work

Deliverable	Included Scope
Custom UI/UX	Premium organic/herbal, minimal and clean design using client-provided branding.
Responsive Website	Desktop, tablet and mobile optimized layout with touch-friendly interactions.
Homepage	Hero, health benefits, farm-to-bottle story, quality badges, testimonials, usage/recipe guide and CTAs.
About / Brand Story	Brand and farm-origin presentation using approved client content.
Product Showcase	Five products with images, descriptions, benefits/features and purchase CTAs.
Quality & Certification	Lab reports and certification showcase using client-provided material.
Contact	Contact details and customer action section.
WhatsApp	Direct product inquiry with pre-filled message.
Amazon / Flipkart	Direct links to respective marketplace product pages.
Analytics	Basic analytics/click tracking setup where required accounts are available.
Basic SEO	Title, meta description, Open Graph, image alt text, sitemap and robots.txt.
Deployment	Vercel deployment and assistance with client-owned domain connection.
Source Code	Final source-code handover after completion and full payment.

3. Products Included

#	Product

8. Timeline

Estimated development duration: 5 working days after receipt of advance and all required client assets/content. Delays in receiving content, images, certificates, testimonials or marketplace links may extend delivery.

9. Client Responsibilities

- Provide logo, brand colors, product images, product information, brand story, lab reports/certificates and contact details.
- Provide valid WhatsApp, Amazon and Flipkart details/links.
- Review and approve submitted work promptly.
- Client-owned accounts and third-party billing remain the client's responsibility.

10. Revisions & Change Requests

- Reasonable revisions within the approved scope are included.
- A revision means modification to an already agreed requirement.
- New pages, features, integrations, major redesigns or changes to approved requirements are additional work and will be quoted separately.

11. Additional Products & Features

The quotation includes the five products listed in this document. Any additional product requested after scope approval will be charged separately at ₹1,500 per standard product. Any new feature, page, integration, custom functionality or major change requested after approval will also attract additional charges, which will be communicated and approved before implementation.

12. Maintenance & Support — Up to 6 Months

- Up to 6 months of basic maintenance/support is included from the date of final website delivery.
- Maintenance covers minor bug fixes, broken-link checks, small content corrections and reasonable technical assistance related to the delivered website.
- Maintenance does not include new products, new pages, new features, redesigns, new integrations, major content work or third-party service fees.
- Requests outside basic maintenance will be treated as additional work and quoted separately.
- The 6-month maintenance period does not include renewal or payment of domain, hosting, API, plugin, analytics or other third-party services.

13. Terms & Conditions

1. Project scope is limited to the features and deliverables explicitly listed in this quotation.
2. The total project cost is ₹22,000, payable as 30% advance (₹6,600) on confirmation and 70% (₹15,400) before final source-code handover. This amount is negotiable and any revision will be confirmed in writing before project commencement.
3. Development starts after receipt of the advance payment and required client assets/content.
4. The estimated timeline is 5 working days and may change if client content, approvals or required access are delayed.
5. The quotation includes five products: Moringa, Banana, Beetroot, Ashwagandha and Wheatgrass Powder.
6. Any additional product requested after scope approval will be charged separately at ₹1,500 per standard product.
7. Any new feature, page, integration, functionality or major design change requested after scope approval will involve extra charges.
8. Extra work will be started only after the additional scope and charges are communicated and approved by the client.
9. Up to 6 months of basic maintenance/support is included after final delivery, subject to the maintenance limitations stated in this quotation.
10. Maintenance does not include new features, new products, redesigns, advanced changes or third-party costs.
11. Domain, hosting, paid APIs, plugins, subscriptions, analytics tools and other third-party charges are not included unless specifically stated.
12. The client is responsible for providing accurate product claims, pricing, certifications, images, links and other business information.
13. TECH BUDDIES is not responsible for changes, outages or policy decisions made by Amazon, Flipkart, WhatsApp, Vercel, domain providers or other third-party services.
14. The website will redirect customers to marketplace/WhatsApp services; payment processing and order fulfillment are handled by the respective external platform/client.
15. Client approval of the design/content confirms that the approved material is ready for implementation.
16. Source code will be handed over after completion and settlement of the full project amount.
17. The client retains ownership of its supplied brand assets, product content, logos and business information.
18. Any future maintenance or development after the included 6-month support period will be handled on a paid/on-demand basis unless a separate agreement is made.
19. Payment must be made only to the bank details provided in Section 7; TECH BUDDIES is not responsible for payments made to any other account.
20. Approval of this quotation confirms acceptance of the scope, price, payment terms, timeline assumptions, revision policy, maintenance policy and all terms stated above.

14. Out of Scope

- Built-in e-commerce checkout, shopping cart and payment gateway
- Login, signup, authentication and user accounts
- Admin dashboard / CMS
- Custom backend or database

- Advanced animations or complex interactive systems
- Advanced SEO and ongoing SEO campaigns
- Professional copywriting, photography or video production
